

JOB DESCRIPTION

- Title: Teacher of computer science - part time (0.5 fte)
- Responsible to: Leadership team of the school
- Purpose: To plan and deliver a programme of learning in the subject area taking account of National Curriculum requirements, LA guidance, national initiatives and school priorities.
- Responsible for: Standards in computer science at KS3 and KS4
- Key tasks: This job description outlines the key tasks required. It is not exhaustive and subject to change as circumstances dictate. The post holder will be consulted of any additional changes in advance. School specific tasks are in addition to the generic tasks as laid down in the school teachers' pay and conditions document.
- Subject planning and delivery of lessons at KS3 and KS4 using the school's 7 JRS-essentials
  - Contribution to the development of subject scheme of work for KS3 and KS4
  - Setting of homework in the subject area
  - Contribution to the school improvement plan
  - Contribution to the development of the subject development plan
  - Contribution to integrating cross-curricular themes into schemes of work
  - Assessment, recording, reporting and analysis of subject data
  - In consultation with the Learning Support Department ensure differentiation of materials and teaching approaches to enable all students to access the subject successfully
  - Manage standards of behaviour in the classroom and support for good behaviour around the school
  - Health and safety in subject area/classroom
  - Attendance at subject development meetings/courses
  - Contribution to whole school developments
  - Contribution to the ethos, wider curriculum and whole school events of John Ruskin School
- IN ADDITION ... the current post holder takes responsibility for the school website and this extra role will be discussed at interview and potentially be made available to the successful candidate